

Visa's Money Tips Checklist

Going to South Africa for the 2010 FIFA World Cup™?

Here are 10 things you need to know.

Top 10

Remember

The 2010 FIFA World Cup™ proudly accepts only Visa-branded payment cards, along with cash, in all 2010 FIFA World Cup™ stadiums, to pay for food and beverages, retail goods, and services.

How to Access the Visa Travel Guide |

To download and print a copy of the Visa Visitors Guide, click here.

1 | You'll need a Visa card or cash to pay for items at all 2010 FIFA World Cup™ venues. To get a Visa credit, debit or prepaid card visit your bank or go to www.visa.com/globalgateway.

2 | Remember to notify your issuing bank that you will be traveling and that you will be using your Visa credit or debit card abroad to avoid any issues when transacting.

3 | If you lose your card, report it to your issuing bank immediately! If you don't know your issuing bank's phone number, contact Visa's Global Customer Care Assistance toll-free hotline, 0-800-990-475.

4 | Take advantage of special merchant offers while in South Africa – for details read the Visa Visitor Guide: South Africa 2010, by visiting www.visa.com/fifavisitortravelguide.

5 | While you're travelling, set up automatic bill pay for your credit card and make sure you have sufficient funds in your debit account.

6 | In case of an emergency, keep records of your account numbers and PINs (personal identification numbers) in a safe and secure place.

7 | Contact your issuing bank about travel-related benefits for Visa cardholders.

8 | Look for the Visa or PLUS logo on ATMs or a point-of-sale to ensure international payment cards are accepted. To find the nearest ATM visit www.visa.com/atms.

9 | Always have a small amount of Rand, plus a Visa payment card on you while traveling throughout South Africa.

10 | Carefully review your payment card statements and contact your issuing bank immediately if you see any suspicious or incorrect charges.